Academic support

Reference document / Support knowledge

Study support: free tutoring and study groups are available through the academic support center. Contact the center for the current appointment schedule.

Prepare for a session

Bring the assignment instructions and identify the topic you want to practice. Tutoring helps you work through concepts; it does not replace your own submitted work.

Check availability

Appointments and study-group schedules can change. Consult the academic support center for the current availability before planning your visit.