Wireless access

Reference document / Support knowledge

Wireless access: select the campus WiFi network and authenticate using your campus account. Contact the verified IT help desk if wireless access fails.

Connection checks

Check that wireless networking is enabled. Select the official campus network and review the sign-in prompt before entering your campus account information.

Support request

If reconnecting does not resolve the problem, record the location, device type and displayed error. Do not include your password in a support ticket.